SOLID MEN.

Seven Weigh 1,597 Pounds, or an Average Weight of 228 Pounds. A GAZETTE reporter entered the Depot Hotel Thursday evening, when he was greeted with a merry laugh and an invitation to "Come and have a glass of soda water with a stick in it!" Turning about and looking at the party he was struck at once with their mammoth proportions. All were in the happiest of moods, cracking yarns, telling witty stories, and slipping cool punches, etc. At once the thought struck him that there were some solid men physically as well as financially in Reno. The jolliest of the lot it would be hard to denominate, but he ventured to ask the question of the genial Assemblyman from Wells, Hon. W. J. Hanks, who is contemplating the purchase of some property here, "Hanks, how much do you weigh?" "Two hundred and forty pounds," was the answer, "and I am heavier than any man in Reno, too." "Well, you beat me," said Colonel Hodge, of the New York Mutual Insurance Company, "for I only weigh 215 pounds." This was followed by another order to "set 'em up," when last year's Democratic candidate for Congress, the good-natured Scotchman, McMillan, said: "Be Bobby Burns, if Winnequas don't hold her own against me. Heft is 16 stone one," (or 225 pounds). This caused another laugh at Mac's expense, when Charlie Jones shouted, "I beat you one pound. I'm 226." At this juncture Hanks, who thought his wager won, began to poke fun at the whole party till the portly forms of J. A. Fitzgerald and Lieutenant-Governor Davis braced up to the bar and announced that he turned the scales at 197. "How much, Governor?" shouted Hanks, fearing he had lost. "Only 230," said the ruddy-complexioned second officer of Nevada. "Knew I'd win," said the gleesome Hanks. "Right," responded the proprietor, and just as Harry Davis and Bob Sage were about to manipulate the mixtures at the command given, the reporter ventured to remark: "Hold on there a moment, gentlemen; here comes the old Democratic war-horse of Washoe, Charles Richardson. Let's learn where he turns his balance." All eyes were directed towards the door, (none more eager in their expression than the jolliest Hanks, where they saw the entrance of the venerable Richardson, who was greeted by half a dozen voices. "Hello, John; how much d'ye weigh?" "Two hundred and sixty-five pounds in my stockings. I'm the heaviest man in Washoe county to-day, and don't you forget it." The look which the now dejected Hanks cast at the 225 pounds avoirdupois of reportorial flesh was enough to convince him it was time to skip. Hanks paid the bill and left yesterday morning for the Bay, a wiser if not a heavier man. The combined weight, not including the scribe, of the party present, numbering seven in all, was 1,597 pounds, or an average of 228 pounds and a fraction.

THE STATE FAIR.

Business Transacted To-day by the Board of the Nevada Agricultural Association.

At the meeting held in Secretary Stoddard's office to-day by the Board of the Nevada Agricultural Association the following members were present: C. C. Powning, of Carson; John Sweeney, of Carson; Charles Stoddard, L. J. Flint, P. H. Mulcahy and A. White of Reno; Joseph Marzen, of Lovelock; Theodore Winters, of Washoe City, and Fred Danberg, of Genoa.

The recent purchase of 80 acres of land near Reno, together with 20 inches of water, and the Pavilion, by President Powning and Secretary Stoddard, was approved by the Board.

The Secretary was instructed to advertise for proposals for music, bar, and other privileges, the same to close September 1st.

The price of single season tickets was placed at $5; family tickets, $10.

It was ordered that there be a district racing race for a purse of $250, entries to close the same as other races. The day on which the race is to be run will be named hereafter.

Theodore Winters offers $50 for the best exhibit in the first, or live stock, department.

Secretary Stoddard read a communication from the Washington Garden club, near Los Angeles, Cal., announcing that the owner would exhibit several cactuses.

Adjourned to meet again on September 3d.

No Kin to Buckley's Lambs.

Messrs. Parson and Eager, the well-known sheepmen of California, arrived in Reno at a very late hour last night and are stopping at the D-pot hotel. They brought with them 1,000 lambs, which will be in the hands of the stockyard. These men are on their way to Salt Lake, where Mr. Parson says they will dispose of them in less than a week's time. The people prefer them to Eastern sheep, although they were raised in California. They can stand the frost and snows of Winter better than their rivals. This morning they sold Mr. Joe Pimental, of Mason Valley, 45 bucks at $25 apiece. They will be here until sometime to-morrow morning, or until they get a car to take them through. It is worth one's while to visit the corral to see this excellent herd.

Prices in Carson Booming.

"How is it that none of the picnic gotten up by Virginia City organizations this season have been held at Treadway's park?" asked a GAZETTE reporter last evening of a prominent member of the "Comrades of Arrangements" of the Caledonia picnic which is being held at Bowers' Mansion to-day.

"Well, I can only answer for our club. We wanted to go there, but were asked $300 for the use of the park for the day. That was beyond our pile, and we consequently looked out for a place that could be had for a reasonable price, and decided on Bowers' Mansion."

PERSONAL.

John W. Mackay is expected to arrive in New York on Monday next.

George C. H. E. Hardin left this morning for his ranch in Mason Valley.

Senator Westerfield was a passenger from the Bay this morning, and proceeded on his way to Dayton.

He looks well and hearty and says he is giving more attention to the mining industry than he is to "fixing political fences."

Judge Bonfield came up from San Jose this morning where he left his family. His eldest daughter, Miss Dora, has entered the State normal school in the Garden City, where she will complete her education. The Judge went out to Winnemucca on this morning's train.

Mr. Wm. Irwin, Superintendent of the Bodie and Mono mines, passed on to Frisco last night. He said that the camp was very quiet, although nobody imagined but that it would soon again attract public attention as the ore was there and could be worked, he thought, at a large profit.

Mr. Howard Clarke and wife, of Sacramento, two of the earliest settlers of that city, have been on a visit to Reno for the last few days. They were the guests of Mrs. Sessions and left this morning for home on the "local" C. P. train, highly pleased with Reno and its surroundings.

Bishop Whitaker left on last night's C. P. train for California. At the depot there were numerous friends to wish him a safe journey. The good people will go to Oakland where they will be the guests of the well-known mining man, Mr. I. F. Regan, and wife. They will return in about a week.

RENO WATER.

RENO WATER COMPANY.

OFFICE OF C. M. FASSETT, LUGBRIGHT AND ASSAYER, RENO, N.V., JUNE 28, 1907.

T. K. HYMERS, ESQ., CHAIRMAN BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—DEAR SIR:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 26th inst. and have made examinations of three samples of water furnished by you, with special reference to impurities as would render it unfit for domestic use, and beg leave to present the following report:

No. 1. Taken from the main reservoir, about ten miles above town, at the point where the Highland ditch takes its supply; No. 2. Taken from the main reservoir, four feet from the surface, near where the water used in the town is taken; No. 3. Taken from the Highland ditch just before it empties into the main reservoir. The following is a tabulated statement of the results of the tests made:

(In parts per million.)

SAMPLES. [No. 1] [No. 2] [No. 3]

Free ammonia..... .0478 1.562 .0478

Albumenoid ammonia..... .0831 .2894 .0659

(In grains per gallon.)

SAMPLES. [No. 1] [No. 2] [No. 3]

Total solids..... 6.5298 6.7884 9.8304

Organic solids..... .6144 .2216 .6144

Mineral matter..... 4.9152 6.5668 9.2160

Chlorine..... Trace Trace Trace

The ammonia found indicates the proportion of contamination from animal sources, such as sewage, decomposing animal matter, etc., and in No. 1 and 2 is in as small a proportion as can be expected in a stream which flows through the city of Reno, and in No. 3 it is in three times the quantity as in the others, and above the limit of safety—fixed by most authorities at .08 to .12 parts free ammonia, and .18 to .20 parts albumenoid ammonia per million of water.

The second table shows the results obtained in the careful examination of the water; drying and ignition of the residue in platinum crucibles, and proves that the water used in the town is as free from deleterious matters, prejudicial to health, as that supplied to almost any city of the United States.

Impurities resulting from sawdust in the river would be shown in the table under the heading of "organic solids," but the results obtained show that the amount of such matter is very small; much less, indeed, than is contained in many natural springs, some of which carry five grains or more of organic matter to the gallon just where they bubble from the earth.

The comparatively large amount of total solids in sample No. 3 is accounted for by the fact that the sample was taken from the ditch the second day the water was running in it, after it had been empty for a few days, the water naturally being turbid from the particles of silt taken up from the bed of the ditch.

The samples all show an alkaline reaction, but so slight as to be immaterial, being less than one-tenth of the limit of safety, placed at "an alkalinity greater than that produced by adding one part

FINLAYSON JOSE.

The Concert in Virginia City Last Evening a Great Success.

Says this morning's Enterprise: Every seat in Piper's Opera House was occupied last night on the occasion of the Finlayson-Jose concert.

There were chairs in the aisles, benches in use which had been stowed away for years, and men and women were standing at the door unable to get inside. It was a great audience—larger, some thought, than that which greeted Emma Nevada a year or more ago. The concert was not a benefit, but rather an opportunity given to Constockers to hear how well Miss Finlayson and Dickie Jose could sing. Mrs. Patton, Mrs. Wildes, Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Jones spent many hours in the work of preparing the stage for the concert, and they performed their duties well.

Dickie Jose sang excellently a year ago, but he sings a great deal better now. The reputation he has gained in the East is flattering to himself as well as to Nevada people, and it is doubtless lasting. All his songs called forth immense applause last night, but the rendition of "Papa's Footsteps"—the piece in which he won his greatest fame in New York, was perfect.

Miss Flora Finlayson never appeared in a public concert until last night. Her singing was charming, and her nervousness was not very apparent. She has a wonderfully fine contralto, and in all her pieces evoked enthusiastic applause, but her singing of the "Suzanne River" was probably her best performance.

Mrs. Stephens' voice is so well suited to that of Mr. Jose that their duet was one of the most vigorously applauded parts of the concert. Mrs. Stephens is a songstress of whom the Constock may well be proud.

Richard Rule made a success in his basso part. A fair estimate of the house would be 1,000 people, although many good judges placed the attendance at 1,200.

COURTING A WIDOW.
 How it differs from keeping company with an angel.

There is any amount of fun in courting a young girl who has not become used to it. She swallows all the soft things a fellow says, but when it comes to popping the question or something of that kind, she gets frightened more or less and wants time to consider until there are enough loopholes for her lover to slip out through without the least bit of trouble, if he happens to see some one he thinks he could love a shade or two better. Young girls are timid and shy in earnest, and if a fellow is not pretty certain he has found precisely the angel he is looking for, he can manage so as to have the refusal of her for a year or more, and at the same time manage to keep his neck out of the reach of a breach of promise suit when he happens to meet some other sweet-faced angel that seems to him to be better suited to his tastes.

It is different with a widow. She gets rid of all her shyness at the earliest convenient opportunity, and finds out the principal things she desires to know of him before she allows him to get acquainted. The school-girl of sixteen trusts herself to a fine young fellow on sixty or ninety days' sight without security; but the widow, like a thrifty housewife, goes out and examines the marriage reports concerning him, and then sells to him on her own terms for cash. She has him sized up before he comes to market, and when she looks at him she were a very artless creature, and fights shy of him whenever he happens to sit a little close to her on the sofa, there are ten chances to one that he will never look any further, but will buckle right up to her and put the question fairly and squarely, and when he has done so she is not going to tremble all over and blush and ask for a week or a month in which to make up her mind. She will just wind her arms around his neck and look up into his face with one of Ella Wheeler's fiery yeas, and before he has had time to catch his breath he will find himself nailed to the cross with a "yea" that pierces him to his very soul. Summons.
 IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe.
 The State of Nevada sends to R. P. Small greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Theodore Winters as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons—exclusive of the day of service—if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain an order and decree of sale against you of certain property by you pledged to secure the payment of two hundred and fifty dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of six percent per month, for such time as you may retain possession of said money, said principal sum and interest thereon aggregates fifteen hundred and fourteen dollars at the date hereof, also to foreclose your equity of redemption in and to said property, and for other relief. Said demand is evidenced by a written promise to pay said principal sum and interest thereon executed and acknowledged by you on or about November 9th, 1886, to one M. Friedman, who, for value, sold and assigned said written demand and evidence of debt to the plaintiff, who also delivered to plaintiff said property by you pledged, and conveyed therein such rights to plaintiff as said Friedman has pledged and possessed. In addition to said order and decree plaintiff asks a judgment against you for any remainder that may remain unpaid after the proceeds of the sale of said property have been applied upon said demand, said property consists of a diamond and opal breast-pin, containing 15 diamonds and ear-rings to match said breast-pin, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court, at Reno, in said county. And you are notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I, T. V. Julien, Clerk of the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, do hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and correct copy of the original filed in my office on the 24th day of June, A. D. 1887.
 T. V. JULIEN,
 Clerk of the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe.
